

HIGH GRAD CLASS ABOVE A HUNDRED

Names of Young People Who Will Complete Studies in Rock Island
School Are Announced.

NEW RECORD FOR CITY TO BE SET

From the Grades 182 Will Be Sent to Higher Institution—Problem for Board of Education.

Record graduating classes in all the schools of Rock Island will close the school year of 1915-16 and open a problem for next year which will undoubtedly be a hard one for the board of education to decide. The graduating class of '97 from the high school, it is true, is the largest in history, but even more noticeable than this is the record breaking number from the grade schools of the city, totaling in all 182, or nearly twice the number which will go out of the high school in June. If a mid-year class of only 110, the number which entered last January, can be expected next year, the number of students in the high school will, without a doubt, pass the 900 mark, more than a hundred over the greatest enrollment this year. The problem which this will introduce into the school system can be well imagined when the strenuous efforts of the authorities to accommodate the 750 students of this year are remembered.

Of the 182 grade school graduates this year, most of whom will enter for at least the freshman year in high school, Lincoln school will supply the greatest number with a total of 80. Hawthorne ranks second with 57, Longfellow third with 23 and Horace Mann last with 22.

The graduating class from the high school this year numbers, according to present indications, a total of 97, or 29 more than the record class of last year, but it is thought that there are several pupils who have not yet received credit for all their work and whose names will eventually be included with the graduates, so the final number will undoubtedly be over 100. The names of the high school graduates are as follows:

Robert Achley, Mildred Adams, Frank Alter, Muriel Ammerman, Marguerite Anderson, Robert Anderson, Marcus Archer, Elizabeth Buebeck, Bessie Baker, Sadie Barker, Francis Barker, Dorothy Bassett, Fernie Baum, Helmar Benson, Florence Bladel, Fay Booth, Paul Bosenbury, Everett Bowes, Mary Butt, Eugene Cavanaugh, Rose Chamber, Harry Cleveland, Ruth Cleveland, Stella Darling, Harry Davis, Margaret Dillburn, John Dorrington, Helen Downing, Evelyn Eckhart, Ralph Eggert, Louis Emiz, Alberta Glasco, Bernice Glawe, Hortense Granger, Hazel Gregory, Verne Hallgren, Arline Hatch, Lucille Hazard, Frances Higgins, Laura Holcombe, James Hughes, Edgar James, Harold Johnson, Ethel Judd, Emily Kenworthy, Gertrude Kerr, Helen Kittelsen, Mahle Kollman, Margaret Lamont, Edward Lamp, Margaret Lawson, Bertha Leaf, Lawrence Leiddig, Gertrude Lewis, Rose Livingston, Luella Long, Marian McCabe, Will McCulloch, Aline Martin, Uri Metcalf, Walter Meigler, Abe Morris, Charlotte Murray, Joel Nichols, Elizabeth Olmsted, Robert Olmsted, Frances Pettig, Earl Reynolds, Frances Rhoads, John Robb, Marian Roth, Ines Sala, Alma Sanderson, Dorothy Scherzer, Margaret Schmitzer, Franklin Searle, Margaret Searle, Elma Smith, Carl Sodergren, Fae Somers, Hazel Spaulding, George Stauffer, Emily Sundelin, Albert Taber, Vivian Thomas, Ray Tommings, Margaret Underhill, Kenneth Vernon, Florence Watson, Ruth Weed, Mae Wells, Helen Wessel, Ida Wiggins, William Willis, Ruth Wilson, Goldie Young, Mary Zeffren.

It must be remembered, however, that the above lists are purely tentative and that the teachers reserve the right at any time to keep back a student whose work for the rest of the year is not up to the standard. The names are, however, a fairly accurate estimate of the correct number, as they are the names of all who are at present in a position to graduate if they carry all the work which they now have on their schedule.

IN MOLINE LODGES

Last meeting of Nobel lodge, No. 288, Order of Vasa, in Swedish Olive hall, last evening, was featured by the initiation of seven candidates. Next meeting will be held in Red Men hall, as will future gatherings. Meeting evening has also been changed from second and fourth Thursday of each month to the second and fourth Wednesday. This is effective at once.

Two new members were admitted to Moline council, No. 28, M. W. A., by transfer card at the meeting last evening and one new application was acted upon. Regular business was also transacted.

Members of Doric lodge, No. 319, A. F. and A. M., were pleasantly surprised last evening when the third degree was conferred upon Albert D. Martin by his son, Ralph D. Martin, 22 years old, of Aurora, Ill., who traveled 400 miles in order to be present. It is an unusual thing in Masonry for a father to confer a degree upon his son but it is exceedingly rare when a son confers the degree upon his father. Older members of Doric lodge could recall no such incident within their memories.

Briton Becomes General at 39.

"It is reassuring," says a London weekly, "to see that General Haig has got his eye on young men for promotion. Brevet Lieutenant Colonel John Charteris, D. S. O., R. E., being among the new brigadier generals gazetted."

"General Charteris was only a captain when the war began, but was promoted major in October, 1914, brevet lieutenant colonel in August last year and he is now a general at the age of 39, stepping into Major General Macdonough's shoes on the general staff in the western theatre of operations. He won his D. S. O. last year."
